IN THE "LAND OF THE SKY"

The Methodists are Having a Pleasant Session.

PRAYER FOR GENERAL VANCE.

An Interesting Synopsis of Yesterday's Conference Proceedings Prepared for Telegram Readers—Bishop Holsey.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 19.—The conference met at 9 a. m., Bishop Key in the chair. Rev. T. A. Boon announced 106 hymn and then offered a fervent prayer.

The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Rev. G. H. Detwiler, of the M. E. church, was received into the conference.

On motion of R. S. Webb J. E. Gay, of Greensboro, was elected trustee of the conference in place of A. P. Tyer, transferred to the North Carolina conference.

Rev. J. E. Thompson offered resolutions respecting an historical society, which were adopted.

The 20th question was resumed, and the following made their reports and their characters were passed: W. H. Luth, W. V. Honeycut, T. J. Rogers, E. Myers, W. H. Perry, G. W. Ivey, J. B. Carpenter, J. D. Carpenter, J. D. Gibson, W. S. Cherry, J. P. Rogers, T. H. Pegrum, W. L. Sherrill, A. L. Dawson, A. G. Gantt, T. F. Marr, D. P. Tate, T. F. England, J. E. Thompson, J. D. Arnold, W. P. McGehee.

Bishop Holsey, of the colored Methodist church, was introduced to the conference.

The fourth question was called, "Who are admitted into full connection?"

H. K. Boyer, J. H. Fitzgerald, G. F. Kirby, T. A. Smoot, R. G. Tuttle, and R. S. Howie presented themselves before the altar and having answered satisfactorily the questions asked by the Bishop, they were admitted into full connection. The Bishop's words of council to these young men were much enjoyed by the conference. He emphasized as the preacher's great need, an experience in spiritual things, of strong faith and absolute surrender to God's will.

The conference offered prayer for Gen. R. B. Vance, who is very ill at his home.

Bishop Holsey addressed the conference in the interest of Payne Institute at Augusta, Ga., under the auspices of our church, and for the education of colored preachers. He said he was connected with the African race and also with the Anglo Saxon race, but for this he was not responsible. He did not believe that slavery was a curse to the colored race, but God was in it and by it worked out great purposes and through African slavery in the United States, God will some day spread the light of the truth of the gospel over the dark community. In speaking of the characteristics of the colored people he said if a white man stole anything he quit praying, but if a colored man steals your chickens he never stops praying.

The Bishop is laboring to erect a school building at Augusta to be known as the "Haygood Memorial Hall," to cost $25,000. A collection was taken for this cause, amounting to $820.

An election of delegates to the general conference to be held in Baltimore next May, was entered upon. The conference was entitled to five clerical and five lay delegates. H. H. Atkins, S. B. Turrentine, W. R. Ware, J. M. Downum, C. W. Tillett and J. G. Staples were appointed tellers.

On the first ballot the following clerical members were elected: Jas. Atkins, John R. Brooks, J. H. Weaver, and C. W. Byrd. No lay delegates were elected on the first ballot.

The conference adjourned to meet at 3:30 p. m. to complete balloting for the delegates.

EVENING SESSION.

Conference met at 3:30 p. m., Bishop

Key in the chair, and called the house to order and Dr. W. M. Suth announced the hymn, "A charge to keep I have," and led the conference in prayer.

Minutes of the morning session read and approved.

Rev. W. E. Edmunson, of the North Carolina Conference, and chaplain of the United States navy, was introduced to the conference.

On the third ballot for clerical delegates Rev. P. J. Carraway was elected, completing the clerical delegation. The lay delegates elected are as follows: F. Stikeleather, Dr. B. F. Dixon, W. R. Odell, M. O. Sherrill and F. C. Robbins.

The alternates are as follows, clerical: J. R. Scroggs, J. C. Rowe and L. W. Crawford. Lay: J. G. Staples, Geo. W. Hinshaw and J. S. Martin.

The conference adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock tomorrow.

The missionary anniversary will be held in Central church tonight at 7:30 and will be addressed by Dr. J. Atkins and others.

The session has been very pleasant and the weather delightful.

OAK RIDGE AND GREENSBORO

Fine Tackles and Heavy Rushes the Features of the Game.

The Oak Ridge Eleven came in this morning about ten o'clock and put up at the McAdoo. The boys were very much lighter than the Greensboro aggregation and look like boys indeed when ranged with their heavy opponents. The line up of the teams was as follows:

GREENSBORO.	OAK RIDGE.
E. Gilmer, Right End	Wilcox, Right Tackle
Horry, Right Tackle	Markham, Guard
Wright, Guard	Brem, Centre
Jordan, Centre	Palmer, Left Guard
Daniel, Left Guard	Brake, Left End
Buchanan, Left Tackle	Tatum, McAnally
Reynolds, Left End	Gaster, Q. Back
Douglas, Q. Back	Devin, R. H. Back
Wharton, L. H. Back	Mangum, Patterson
Caldwell, F. Back	Lloyd.

THE GAME.

Oak Ridge kicked off to Greensboro who carried ball up field in a series of rushes and runs, scoring. Devin kicked goal; score, 6 to 0.

Game called 3:20. Oak Ridge kicks off to Gilmer, who fumbles; ball passed to Wharton, who goes round right for 7 yards, then ball rushed for short gains to Oak Ridge's 20 yard line. Wharton pushed through and makes for goal, but Wilcox tackles from behind. Greensboro loses by fumble on 5 yard line.

Oak Ridge failsto make the distance and kicks 20 yards to Gilmer. Ball rushed for good gains to five yard line when ball was passed to Wright for touch down. Devin fails goal. Three minutes to play.

At this point of the game a horse ran away outside of the grounds and the crowd left the grounds to see it.

Ball was kicked by Oak Ridge and carried by Greensboro to 20 yard line, when time was called.

Score, 10-0.

In the second half considerable kicking was done. Oak Ridge played a pluck and snappy game but Greensboro rushed for a touch-down. Devin failed goal. Score Greensboro 14, Oak Ridge 0.

The fine tackling of Wilcox was the feature of the game for Oak Ridge.

Greensboro heavy rushes the feature for Greensboro.

TWO TIMID MAIDENS.

And The Ruse By Which They Got Home Safely.

It is becoming more and more apparent every day that man is a mere superfluity and can be easily dispensed with. One of the last strongholds left him was the privilege of being escort and protector to the timid maiden on a dark night when spooks and goblins dogs and "warmints" walk on the earth, but even that has been stormed. One fair maiden was visiting another last night and when the time came for going home no male escort was at hand. The girls were non-plussed for a moment but soon hit upon a plan. One donned the long over coat and derby hat of a recreant brother, who is always in the wrong place at the wrong time, and started to escort her friend home. The scheme worked beautifully until the pair met a real bonafide man when it went all to pieces. They laughed of course and the man saw the game. He declined to say anything about it, though, and only you and a few others know it.

Finnegan's Fortune.

"Finnegan's Fortune," one of the funniest, brightest and most original farce comedies seen here this season was presented at the Academy by the Merry-makers last evening. The piece was full of clean, wholesome fun, bright and witty dialogue and amusing situations, which kept the audience in excellent humor and applause was liberal throughout the performance. The acrobatic work of the students in the fourth act, aided by special trick scenery, was a strong feature and on the whole the play was thoroughly enjoyable and interesting from beginning to end. Tonight, Plunker, Chuggs & Co. will be the attraction.—Petersburg Index-Appeal, Nov. 11.

At Academy of Music here Nov. 25, 26 and 27.

Barcelona, Nov. 20.—Catalonian merchants have made a formal protest to the government at Madrid, against the proposal of the Cuban chamber of commerce, that it be allowed to fix the customs tariff.

A BATTLE WITH BURGLARS.

One Man Riddled With Eighteen Bullets.

TRAIN WRECKERS ON THE ERIE.

Another Dastardly Attempt to Deraill the Express—A Force is Still Working at the Scene of London's Great Conflagration

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Danbury, Conn. Nov. 20.—A desperate battle was fought this morning between the citizens and a gang of burglars at Sandyhook. One burglar fell pierced by 18 bullets. Another was wounded and captured after a hot pursuit, while another escaped. A burglar alarm system had been used on account of the many recent burglaries and it aroused many people.

THE WRECK ON THE ERIE.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Tuxedo, N.Y. Nov. 20.—As the result of fishplates removed near here an engine and six cars were derailed this morning. This is supposed to have been another attempt to wreck the Erie Express but the wreckers miscalculated the time. Several freight hands and the fireman were badly bruised and the track blocked for several hours.

RUINS STILL BURNING.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 20.—A very large force of firemen and about twenty engines have been working all night at high pressure at the scene of yesterday's great fire. The ruins are still burning.

CAUGHT THE DAUNTLESS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 20.—It is reported here that the alleged filibusterer Dauntless has been seized by the United States warship Versuvis.

ASTRIDE THE CROSS ARM, DEAD.

Lineman in Charleston Kill by a Live Electric Wire.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 19.—Henry Heyward, colored, lineman of the electric light company here, was electrocuted while at work this afternoon on Shell street.

Heyward was adjusting wires under instructions from a foreman. He was seated astride the cross arm of a pole about 40 feet from the ground. Through mistake Heyward took hold of a live wire. He was killed instantly, but the body remained in a natural position on the bar. His hands were terribly burned, but the body was in no way disfigured.

The Social Last Night.

A number of young people enjoyed a social at the residence of Mr. E. E. Bain, on Ashe street last night. There was music to enliven the occasion, lending enchantment and muffled the voices so that couples could talk without everybody hearing what was said. Delicious refreshments were served and everybody seemed happy.

One young man who was enthusiastic over the affair said that Mr. and Mrs. Bain were "the best folks he ever saw." It was one of those occasions, on which when you grow older and are married, memory loves to dwell, and which make your eyes twinkle with delight. When the hour for separation came it was hard "to tear yourself away."

Pension Allowances.

The State Auditor yesterday announced the pension allowances for the current year as follows: First class pensioners, $62, a decrease of $2 from last year; second class, $46.50, decrease, $1.50; third class, $31, decrease, $1; fourth class and widows, $15.50, decrease 50 cents. The pension tax yields $2,200 less than last year. There is also an increase of 49 in the number of pensioners. These two things combine to cause the reduction. The total of the pension tax for this year's use is $102,174.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

MR. CECIL RHODES.

There are few men in real life at this time that can show so close an approximation to the hero of romance as Cecil Rhodes. His life has compassed the dash, the daring the misfortune and good luck, alternating, that are the staple ingredients of properly constituted heroes always and everywhere.

How Mr. Rhodes went out to South Africa a youth, poor in purse and wrecked in health; how open air life and hard toil brought him health and the mines made him many times a millionaire is an old and oft told story. Yet it is a story worth the telling and the hearing. It is a story of triumph over conditions hard and bitter, and as such is heartening.

Mr. Rhodes came in for much abuse in connection with the Jameson raid. He was called home and questioned. He answered or did not answer. Today he is back in South Africa and the abuse has somehow fallen away and people are watching to see what Cecil Rhodes will do. They will see some day.

Mr. Rhodes is pre-eminently a man who does things. There have been few things in his upward career that, attempting, he has failed to finish. Accomplishing comes handy to him. He is the one positive force in South Africa. Kruger is purely negative. The Boer, despite shallow laudation, is purely negative. He does things also but they are small things. Merely the wringing of a subsistence from a not very friendly soil; small, material things only. The Boer has power to resist; the power of inertia. Through him South Africa has no future. Mr. Rhodes is a very different man just as the Englishman is different from the stolid Boer. He has the power to initiate, the power to combine. He sees things broadly, in the whole. Through him South Africa has a future; South Africa about which the world in general knows very little and cares very little indeed. It will know more and be more interested in years to come through the instrumentality of Cecil Rhodes.

Run over the names of the prominent Englishmen of the present and you can lay your finger on none more typical than Mr. Rhodes. He is the Englishman of the kind that has built her world's Empire. Twenty years more of life and South Africa will be one strong country and Cecil Rhodes will have made it such.

There is a new political anthem being sung now, the burden of which is "Satisfied." Mr. Hanna declares he is satisfied with the result of the recent elections. Mr. Dingley declares he is satisfied. Mr. McKinley declares he is satisfied. Then they swell the chorus with "We are all satisfied." It is somewhat strange that they should be so anxious for everybody to know it. Probably it is only the pail of joy so full it is slopping over.

Is it possible that all the gyrations of Mr. Marion Butler are meant only to bring him to such a temperature that he will fuse with anything that touches him, "regardless?"

In the New Orleans Times-Democrat is found the statement that yellow fever has developed among some of the cattle in that section at various times during the epidemic which is now disappearing. It is an established fact that the bubonic plague is wreaking havoc among the monkeys which infest the neighborhood of Bombay. What is the matter with the animals? Are they getting human?—Norfolk Landmark. Just so. They are getting human. Everybody recalls the Irishman's pig which was "so much like one of the family" that he did not have the heart to kill it. Then men are being every day turned into scape goats and are turning themselves into other animals. Really the line of demarcation between folks and animals is being wiped out. It were easy to point out isolated specimens that even an expert might class either with the genus humanum or the genus donkeyum.

It would be hard to condemn Dr. Nansen's judgment if he reaches the conclusion that lecturing about what he has seen and speculating as to the whereabouts of Andree is better than going to see more. Dr. Nansen has done his share of seeing already.

General Blanco is not the first man who has felt discouraged when the time came to make present performance stretch over the ground covered by previous wind-jamming.

The Turk has apologized to Austria, but there is a suggestion of grimacing behind Franz Joseph's back that robs the apology of much of its humbleness.

The things that Mr. Hallelujah Ayer will tell are strictly circumscribed and limited—by the bounds of his knowledge and imagination.

It was a dirty Irish trick in the reporter who watched Editor Butler get the $5 bill changed at the ticket window.

Not only Guldensuppe lost his head, but Thorne and Mrs. Nack have followed suit.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

Frank Leslie's for December opens with a most beautiful combination ghost and Christmas story by Frank R. Stockton. "Old Applejoy's Ghost" is one of the best Christmas stories that has consumed printers' ink in many a merry holiday season. It is about the only ghost on record that has preserved all its humanity, and charming humanity at that "after the fitful fever." The Christmas poems are very good, "A Christmas Lochinvar" especially.

The current Review of Reviews has an excellent biographical sketch of Henry George by Arthur McEwen. The collection of cartoons on the New York mayorality race is both amusing and instructive.

The sport lover, whether in field, forest or stream, will find much in outing to repay a heading. There is football and hunting and racing talk, the best of its kind—and its kind is preferable to the cheap short story that so abounds.

The December Atlantic contains an unusually brilliant piece of literature, by Mr. L. Zangwill, the well known English critic and novelist of the Ghetto. It is entitled "From a Mattress Grave," and is based upon the last hours and death-bed scene of the poet Heine.

The noble English sonnet has seldom found, save among its great masters, such a worthy player upon its steps as Lloyd Milfin, who presents us with a rich gift of poetry in his "At the Gates of Song."

Bret Harte's new story is entitled "Salome Jane's Kiss."

"The Highland in 1749" is the title of Mr. Andrew Lang's new book.

Christie Murray's new novel is entitled "This Little World." His book on his recent American travels will appear as "A Cockney Columbus."

Henry Seton Merriman's forthcoming Harper's Magazine serial, "Roden's Corner," is located for the most part in The Hague, but has also picturesque and noteworthy glimpses of London and London society. It is itself, in its primary motive, a keen satire upon the pharisaic aspects of modern altruism.

R. S. Hichens, of "Green Carnation" fame, has a new novel in press, entitled "Bye-Ways of Life."

Mrs. Amelia E. Barr's new book is to be called "A Knight of the Nets," and is a Scotch fishing tale. As its title implies, the heroine is a net mender in the little fishing village of Pit-tendurie, in Fifeshire.

Rudyard Kipling's first "Just-So" story, which will appear in the Christmas number of St. Nicholas, is illustrated by Oliver Herford. It is the first of a series of fantastic stories about animals.

Henry George was engaged in giving the final touches to his latest book, "Science of Political Economy," when his sudden death stopped his task.

Gladstone is contemplating a biographical work embracing the lives of some of the most distinguished men in the modern church. Justin McCarthy's "Story of Gladstone's Life" is now out in book form. Mr. McCarthy has also finished a volume of short stories, "The Three Disgraces."

The December McClure's devotes an article to the young Swedish explorer, Dr. Sven Hedin. A few months ago he completed a journey of three years and seven months in the most inaccessible and unknown parts of Asia. He traversed mountain passes nearly fifteen thousand feet high, in a temperature of nearly forty degrees below zero; he explored and measured a lake nine hundred feet deep; he climbed nearly to the top of an unexplored mountain twenty-five thousand feet high; he traversed the unexplored Takla-Makan Desert, and in doing so went nine days without water, losing all but two of his companions and coming off himself with the merest spark of life.

That veteran naturalist, John Muir, will contribute to early numbers of the Atlantic Monthly a series of articles which are likely to become the classic descriptions of first, the Great Government Reservations, second, the Yellowstone Park, third, Yosemite Park, and fourth, the Sequoia Parks.

Cheap Gas.

Since October 1st, 1897, and forward, illuminating gas furnished at $2 per thousand feet, if bill is paid on presentation, provided the same amounts to $1 or more for each meter. Fuel gas for cooking purposes $1 per thousand feet, net.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

C., on Saturday, December 19, 1897, the land described in said mortgage, butted and bounded as follows: Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street, leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street in 13 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1/2 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1/4 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale the lot out of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields. The above mortgage is recorded in book 202, page 76, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897. LAURA KERR, Executrix of J. W. Kerr, deceased.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems of Truth Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.
The truth is, when it comes to the bottom of everything none of us knows anything.—Rev. John Mathews, Methodist, St. Louis.

One Kind of Suicide.

Many people commit spiritual suicide. They quarrel with their family or their neighbors, and thus annihilate their own happiness.—Rev. Warren G. Partridge, Baptist, Cincinnati.

Life a Dream.

To live is to dream. The interesting part of life is its dream. To grow old is to lie down in despair amid the wreck of shattered ideals, unless we learn a surer dream.—Rev. Frank Crane, Methodist, Chicago.

The Ancients Feared Death.

The old Greek philosophers wrote many beautiful things about death, but did not themselves desire death, which to them was filled with darkness and shadows.—Father William J. Clark, Catholic, Philadelphia.

Our National Power in Peril.

Today men are anxious about the decline of our national commerce. There is a peril greater than this—the deterioration of our moral life. If this should ensue, not only is our commerce doomed, but also our national power.—Rev. F. R. Miller, Ryder Memorial Church, Chicago.

Politics Uplifted.

Politics is to be left no more to the disreputable elements of society. The best thought and the most aggressive action of the best portions of the community must be reckoned as powerful factors in the settlement of pending issues.—Bishop Fallows, Reformed Episcopal, Chicago.

The Irrepressible Conflict.

There is an irrepressible conflict between good and bad. Nothing has come to us without the price of conflict. America was not established without conflict. The institutions of this country were founded on a rock that was cemented with blood.—Rev. C. C. Alberson, Methodist, Buffalo.

Why the Wicked Flourish.

Society is composed of our evils, as well as of our virtues. Why do the wicked prosper? is often asked. The answer is, because we let them, and because by their business ability and enterprise they deserve to. They prosper by what is good in them, not by what is bad.—Rev. Merle St. Croix Wright, Unitarian, New York.

The Demon Will Return.

A man may no longer visit places where strong drink is sold and where temptations are great and may denounce and drive away former evil companions who visit him. But if he puts no other lock on the door but his good resolution, then depend upon it the old demon, seven times worse, will return.—Bishop Littlejohn, Episcopal, Brooklyn.

Sawbuck Versus Boxing Gloves.

When we remember that only about 1 in 1,000 of our population ever goes to college, our $50,000 college gymnasiums, it will be seen, have done little to develop muscle compared with a $1 sawbuck, and as between the boxing gloves and the plow handles the plow will take the blue ribbon every time.—Rev. H. D. Jenkins, Presbyterian, Kansas City.

Our First Duty.

Our first duty is to ourselves—to keep body and mind in good working order. The laws of health were never so well understood as now, and the means of culture so numerous, yet there is danger of running after windmills, of mistaking sound and noise for sense.—Rev. Charles G. Ames, Church of Disciples, Boston.

Mere Lack of Confidence.

What is it that makes the rich man look down upon the poor with fear, to resort to the mistaken principle that upholds the few against the majority? Why is that the poor man looks with envy upon the rich man and wishes to resort to revolutionary measures for the even distribution of God's goods? It is all through want of confidence in God.—Rev. John Scully, Catholic, Philadelphia.

The Beginning of the End.

The very moment that the majority of the citizens of a community choose to get their living by selling shoddy goods by lying advertisements, by skillfully transferring to their pockets the wealth that other people have produced, and prefer wealth even of tainted money rather than a crust with a spotless integrity, that moment, if there is a divine justice in the world, that justice is pledged to accomplish industrial overthrow.—Rev. W. D. Hillis, Central Music Hall, Chicago.

Epidemic Pessimism.

It is well to know the evils that exist, but also well to avoid creating an epidemic of pessimism which will work untold disaster by the omission of the regnant forces of good that exist. Ruskin thrilled with rapturous delight as he looked at rock and wave and herb, at grass and flowers, but when care, strife and doubt arose in his mind he says nature ceased to give her revelations of beauty and glory. Pessimism is a poor investment, and when epidemic sometimes reaches good men.—Rev. G. R. Wallace, Congregationalist, Chicago.

Wholesale Murder.

People shocked at the sight or mention of blood and who would not think to lift up the hand in murderous violence yet kill by ways they think not of, in municipal life by the promoting or allowing of unhealthy conditions; in business life by illicit traffic in saloons and brothels and by that harsh, selfish competition that slays the employee or pushes the brother tradesman to the wall; in political life, where men stride rough shod on each other and grind and crush out life. Our civil laws need to be guarded and preserved, lest political changes mean little else than wholesale pillage and murder.—Rev. J. W. Weddell, Baptist, Philadelphia.

IS A GULF UNDER KANSAS?

Railroad Buildings Sink Into an Immense Chasm.

Larned, Kan., Nov. 19.—One of those remarkable freaks which go to confirm the belief that a great river or gulf is under all of Western Kansas has just occurred near this place.

Last night the railroad station of Rozel, on the Jetmore Branch of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Road, nestled peacefully on the bosom of the prairie, and no one doubted that today's sun would awaken its little industries to their usual life and activity. This morning when those who live in the neighborhood turned their attention toward the station they were thunder-struck to find that the group, which the night before had consisted of the station, two or three small elevators and a few other buildings, was not to be seen.

Investigation proved that the land upon which the buildings were standing had disappeared in a chasm, carrying down the buildings. The depth of the chasm cannot be determined. Hundreds of persons have looked in wonder on the scene today.

The hole is about an acre and a half in extent, of an uneven, oblong shape, with rough, almost perpendicular walls. It is filled to within about seventy feet of the surface with dark, stagnant-looking water, into which everything thrown immediately sinks. The depth of this water is unknown. No one was in the buildings when they were swallowed up.

STATE TELEPHONE RATES.

The Railroad Commission Revokes Its Order Regulating Them.

Colonel Olds writes the Charlotte Observer as follows:

Before the railroad commission this morning there was a final re-hearing in the matter of telephone rates. There was argument by counsel for the telephone companies, which had excepted to the commissioners' order reducing telephone rates in the State. Hon. John W. Daniel and Clarence E. Young appeared for the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and Robert C. Strong for the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The commission unanimously decided to revoke its former orders regulating telephone rates and leaves the matter open to free competition. The attorneys in the case are much pleased with the action taken as it is a decided victory for the companies in the State.

A New Counterfeit Discovered.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The secret service bureau announces the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 silver certificate, and also a counterfeit national bank note.

The silver certificate is a photographic production printed on two pieces of paper pasted together. No attempt has been made to color the back of the note, which is a shade of brown instead of green. The seal is colored a bright pink.

The note is badly printed and the lathe work is blurred and indistinct. The national bank note is on the First National of Joplin, of Missouri, series 1882. It is also printed on two pieces of paper and the silk fibre in the genuine is imitated by pen and ink marks.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THOSE TIMES HAVE PASSED.

There is No Need For The Little Boys Going in Rags Now.

Once upon a time there was a little boy who didn't have any father or mother, and he was a very poor little boy, and he had to work for his living, though he was only seven years old.

We did not have any Orphan Asylums then, so this little fellow had no one to look after his comfort and he was allowed so little for his services that he was not able to buy the necessary clothing for winter.

This little fellow had to get out early in the morning when it was cold, and he had nothing to keep his little body warm with but a thin calico bodice and a little cotton coat.

The consequence of this exposure was, at the age of 9 years this little fellow had contracted a deep cold, and he died of consumption.

Every parent is anxious that their boy should grow up strong. To do this their little bodies should be properly nourished, and clothed in a suit of our Fleece Lined Underwear. Price, $1.00 per suit. Ages, 6 to 18.

A SLAVE DEALER'S FORTUNE.

Three Americans are Said to Have a Chance to Get a Share of $15,000,000

Brooklyn, Nov. 19.—Peter Larsen, a contractor and builder of Brooklyn, has received news from Copenhagen that he has a good chance to establish his claim to a share in a fortune of $15,000,000 left at the death of Captain Wythe in 1799.

The captain was a slave dealer. When he died he left his immense estate to the Dutch government to found an asylum and after one hundred years the fortune was to be divided among his descendants.

Besides Mr. Larsen there are two other heirs in this country, Mrs. Meta Johnson and William Munk, both of Philadelphia. Mr. Larsen will settle up his business in Brooklyn and will sail with his family for Copenhagen.

CHINESE WERE WELL ARMED.

Details of the Landing of German Troops at Kiaochau Bay.

Cologne, Nov. 18.—The Cologne Gazette today publishes a dispatch from Berlin giving further details of the landing of German sailors and marines at Kiaochau bay province of Shantung, on Monday morning last. The Germans, it now appears, found the place occupied by 5,000 Chinese troops, armed with the Prussian Jaeger rifle, and having with them fourteen Krupp field guns. The Chinese fled and the Germans, entering the fortifications, hauled down the Chinese flag and hoisted the German standard.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with a gripe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

SALISBURY'S STREET RAILWAY.

To Be Completed and in Operation in a Year.

Last night at the regular meeting of the city aldermen, directors Joseph J. Newman and John S. Henderson appeared before the board and asked to be granted a franchise to build and equip a street railway through the city. The proposition as presented to the board offered to build a street railway to begin at Chestnut Hill and run to a point at or near the hotel at Spencer. The line to run along Main street and its extension.

The road is to be completed and in operation inside of 12 months. The work on the road to begin in 90 days. The question of granting the franchise was favorably discussed by the board. The matter was then referred to the ordinance and finance committees together with the city attorney who will draw up a satisfactory ordinance and report at an early date.—Salisbury Sun.

HEBANE ON COMPTTEELEN.

He Gives His Opinion of Chart Buying and Cheap Teachers.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction writes a letter to John C. McMillan, supervisor of public schools in Duplin, saying "Your maximum of $30 is too low. I never heard of any necessity of a maximum before you refer to $12.50 as a minimum. This is a new condition. I will say that a teacher who is not worth more than $12.50 per month is not worth employing at all. You can never expect to make the public schools amount to anything with $12.50 teachers. In some counties the committee will strain at a gnat and swallow a camel, all at the expense of the children. They will grind down teachers to $15 and $20 (your county is the first I have heard of at $12.50) and then sign an order for a chart for $38 or $40, and think they have done something smart. Away with such men to manage our schools!"

Prompt Payment.

Last night Messrs. Wharton & McAlister received a message containing news of a fire which occurred at Concord yesterday. The property destroyed was insured in the Southern Stock Mutual. Mr. Wharton went to Concord last night, adjusted the losses, amounting to $350, paid the same and returned to Greensboro on the noon train today.

And, we are told, this is the way the Southern Stock Mutual does business. And it is a North Carolina concern. Give it your patronage. Support it.
